THE EVE OF EPIPHANY
JANUARY 5, 2024

6 PM CONTEMPORARY CHURCH

WELCOME

We're glad you're here!

We'd love to get to know you and help you get to know us. Saint Michael is a vibrant group of people choosing to live life as a community: pursuing Jesus, caring for one another, and serving those in need.

While you're here with us today, we'd love for you to do two things:

- 1. Fill out a Welcome Card. They're in the pew back in front of you, or use the QR code to use the quick, mobile-friendly "Get in Touch" form.
- 2. Stop by a Welcome Hub in the church lobby. You'll see greeters wearing "Welcome" ribbons/lanyards and they can answer questions about a worship service, formation class, or childcare.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

At Saint Michael we are all about connecting, serving, and growing. To learn more about us, find ways to get involved, or see a map of the campus, scan the QR code.

OUR FOCUS: Build Christian Disciples for a Transformed Community

Rob Springer-Kyle leads our Welcome and Engagement ministries at Saint Michael and he would love the opportunity to connect and answer any questions you may have. Feel free to contact him at (903) 405-7447 or rspringer-kyle@saintmichael.org.

The white cover reflects the liturgical color used during the season of Christmas; this color is reserved for major celebrations, and during the season of Christmas calls to mind the extraordinary gift of God given to us in Jesus, the Word made flesh.

FROM THE RECTOR

The Rev. Dr. Christopher D. Girata

Welcome! I'm very excited you're here for tonight's Feast of Epiphany & Burning of the Greens. We'd love to get to know you better, so please take a moment to fill out the welcome card, either physically or digitally, that can be found on the opposite page or in the pew back in front of you. Our Welcome Team members are in the hallways today to help you with anything you need.

Epiphany is a sacred season in which we remember the visit of the magi and the manifestation of God's saving presence to all the world. After this unique worship service, join us for the procession to the Garden Cloister for the annual burning of the greens, followed by hot chocolate and s'mores.

In this new year, please take a moment to think of all the ways God has blessed you with gifts and how you can use those gifts through our church community. Please also make note of the special events coming up in the next few weeks, including the Women of Saint Michael and Men of Saint Michael speaker events on Wednesday, January 17 and Wednesday, January 27, respectively (details are in the back of your bulletin). We hope you'll join us!

As we prepare to worship together, I invite you to take a moment and center yourself on God's presence. Worshiping, learning, and giving together help us grow closer to who God created us to be, and you're part of that work. May God bless you today and every day, and I hope to see you again very soon!

The Opening Acclamation and Collect for Purity (standing)

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day (standing)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, by the leading of a star you manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: Lead us, who know you now by faith, to your presence, where we may see your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson Isaiah 60:1-6 (seated)

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn: "Open Up My Eyes" (standing, sung by all)

O-pen up my eyes, O-pen up my heart, O-pen up my ears, so I can lis-ten.

The Gospel (standing) Matthew 2:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon (seated)

The Reverend Greg Pickens

Nicene Creed (standing, spoken by all)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People (standing)

Celebrant Let us now pray for the church and for the world.

Lector As we join the wise men from the East and humbly offer gifts at the feet of Jesus, let us offer prayers to God who shows the glory of Christ in all the world by the manifestation of the King of the Jews to the shepherds and the magi.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector For our bishop and priests, and all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector For all believers who put their trust in the incarnate Son of God.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector For the leaders of the nations and all in authority, and for peace and justice.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector For travelers, for the sick and the suffering, for the hungry and the oppressed, for those in prison, and for the dying and the dead.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector For our deliverance from all affliction, strife, and need.

People Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Lector Remembering the most glorious and blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Michael the Archangel, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

People To you, O Lord.

Celebrant God of the stars of night, accept the prayers we offer on this joyful feast. Fill our hunger with your word of truth and summon all who thirst to the banquet of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin (kneeling)

Priest Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name.
Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Peace (standing)

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem: "We Three Kings" (seated, sung by the band)

We three kings of Orient are Bearing gifts we traverse afar
Field and fountain moor and mountain
Following yonder star

Oh, Star of wonder star of night
Star of royal beauty bright
Westward leading still proceeding
Guide us to Thy perfect light

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain
Gold I bring to crown him again
King forever, ceasing never
Over us all to reign

Oh, Star of wonder star of night
Star of royal beauty bright
Westward leading still proceeding
Guide us to Thy perfect light

(song continues on the next page)

Frankincense to offer have I
Incense owns a deity nigh
Prayer and praising gladly raising
Worship him God most high

Oh, Star of wonder star of night
Star of royal beauty bright
Westward leading still proceeding
Guide us to Thy perfect light

Glorious now behold him arise
King and God and Sacrifice
Heaven sings alleluia
Alleluia the earth replies

Oh, Star of wonder star of night
Star of royal beauty bright
Westward leading still proceeding
Guide us to Thy perfect light

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer D (standing)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

9 Ho - ly, ho - - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might,
 15 hea-ven and earth are full of your glo - ry ho - sa - nna in the high - 21 -est. Ble - ssed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. _____ Ho - san-na in the high - est. _____

Justin Brooks | Tiffany Brooks © 2006 Elgie Street Music (ASCAP) CCLI License # 1718120

Please kneel as you are able

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ’s death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All We praise you, we bless you,
 we give thanks to you,
 and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with Michael and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleulia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Allelulia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to come forward to the two standing stations for Communion at the direction of the ushers. Gluten free wafers are available upon request. Receive the wine by drinking from the chalice as it is offered to you, or by retaining the wafer, to dip lightly into the chalice for yourself. If you are not receiving, you may cross your arms over your chest and receive a blessing. If you are unable to physically come to the rail, please indicate to an usher that you would like to receive Communion at your seat.

Following receiving Communion handheld candles will be distributed and lighted as you return to your seat. After receiving a candle please proceed to the furthest available acolyte to have your candle lit.

Communion Hymn: "Christ, Whose Glory Fills The Skies" (seated, sung by all)

The image shows a musical score for a three-part setting of the hymn "Christ, Whose Glory Fills The Skies". It consists of three staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with three numbered parts. The first part is a soprano line, the second is an alto line, and the third is a bass line. The lyrics are: 1 Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly Light, 2 Dark and cheer-less is the morn un - ac - com - pan - ied by thee; 3 Vis - it then this soul of mine! The Post-Communion Prayer (standing, spoken by all)

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing (standing)

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Closing Chorus: Refrain of “We Three Kings” (standing, sung by all)

Following the Refrain the crucifer, torches, and clergy will lead the procession out of the church and into the Garden Cloister for the Burning of the Greens.

Burning of the Greens

Celebrant Light and peace in Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Celebrant The Lord has shown forth his glory;

People Come, let us adore him.

Celebrant Lord, you now have set your servant free to go in peace as you have promised.

People The Lord has shown forth his glory; come, let us adore him.

Celebrant For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, whom you have prepared for all the world to see.

People The Lord has shown forth his glory; come, let us adore him.

Celebrant A light to enlighten the nations, and the glory of your people Israel.

People The Lord has shown forth his glory; come, let us adore him.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who sent fire from heaven upon the sacrifice offered by Elijah, the prophet of the Anointed One; who led the children of Israel through the desert with a pillar of fire; who led wise men from the East to the house of Wisdom by a fiery star; and who fulfilled the prophecy of John the Forerunner by sending the Christ who baptized with the Holy Spirit and with fire: Pour your blessing upon this Epiphany flame that it may be a reminder to all of the true Light who came into the world, and who ignites us with the Holy Spirit to lead us on our pilgrimage with the fire of his Love; through Jesus Christ, the Light of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the same Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Dismissal

Celebrant Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is invited to stay for a reception.

Please place your candles in the baskets provided.

Building the Kingdom

Annual Giving Campaign

Giving to our annual stewardship campaign, Building the Kingdom, is an essential practice that supports Saint Michael's shared mission and ministry, including our growing staff, campus, and programs. While essential to our operations, giving annually is an incredibly important spiritual discipline. An annual gift represents our stewardship of the time, talents, and treasures that God gives freely to each one of us. Giving back to God's work through Saint Michael is a sign of gratitude and a key part of deepening our discipleship identity.

It's our turn to invest in our future. As you evaluate your annual stewardship gift, we also ask you to please join us in Building our Future.

SAINT MICHAEL FOOD PANTRY TEAM

One in eight Texans experience food insecurity, meaning they don't have adequate food resources to support an active and healthy life. In an effort to reduce food insecurity in our community, Saint Michael partners with multiple food pantries working to support food-insecure individuals and families by providing them with food resources. You can join our fight against hunger! Consider making it your New Year's resolution to volunteer once or twice a month on the Saint Michael Food Pantry Team. Contact mwood@saintmichael.org for more information.

AMISTAD BOLIVIA YOUTH MISSION TRIP

Amistad, Bolivia Youth Houses

Since 2000, Saint Michael has supported the orphaned children and adolescents of Villa Amistad in Cochabamba, Bolivia, helping to successfully bring them to independent living through life in transitional youth houses. During the pandemic, the adolescents were particularly affected by the isolation of quarantine. Our support will help them receive the educational, medical, spiritual, and emotional support they need to overcome their traumatic past.

Amistad Bolivia Youth Mission Trip

A CASE FOR LOVE

Exclusive screening on Tuesday, January 23.

All Angels Foundation is a proud supporter of 'A Case for Love,' a new documentary exploring selfless living in a nation grappling with chaos and division. The film crisscrosses the US to find where unselfish love shines, and where it's absent. Bishop Michael Curry weaves it all together with interviews from everyday people and notable figures like Pete Buttigieg, Al Roker and Becca Stevens. Scan the QR code to learn more and get your tickets for the exclusive screening on Tuesday, January 23.
