SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
JUNE 11, 2023

7:30 AM & 5:30 PM
SAINT MICHAEL CHAPEL
We’re glad you’re here!

We’d love to get to know you and help you get to know us. Saint Michael is a vibrant group of people choosing to live life as a community: pursuing Jesus, caring for one another, and serving those in need.

While you’re here with us today, we’d love for you to do two things:

1. Fill out a Welcome Card. They’re in the pew back in front of you, or use the QR code to use the quick, mobile-friendly “Get in Touch” form.

2. Stop by a Welcome Hub in the church lobby. You’ll see greeters wearing “Welcome” ribbons/lanyards and they can answer questions about a worship service, formation class, or childcare.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Our Focus: Build Christian Disciples for a Transformed Community

---

Rob Springer leads our Welcome and Engagement ministries at Saint Michael and he would love the opportunity to connect and answer any questions you may have. Feel free to contact him at (903) 405-7447 or rspringer@saintmichael.org.

The cover reflects the color designated for the liturgical season, which is green during the season after Pentecost.
FROM THE RECTOR

Welcome to Saint Michael—we’re glad you’re here! Please take a moment to fill out the welcome card, either physically or digitally, that can be found on the opposite page or in the pew back in front of you. Our Welcome Team members are in the hallways today to help you with anything you need.

Our worship continues each week throughout the summer, along with adult classes and activities for children and youth of all ages. Please check the schedule to the right for details on classes and activities, and if you need help navigating to particular rooms, there are Greeters in the hallways to help.

As we prepare to worship together, I invite you to take a moment and center yourself on God’s presence. Worshiping, learning, and giving together help us grow closer to who God created us to be, and you’re part of that work. May God bless you today and every day, and I hope to see you again very soon!

The Collect of the Day: 7:30 AM

O God, from whom all good doth come: Grant that by thy inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day: 5:30 PM

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson  Hosea 5:15-6:6

Thus says the Lord: “I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favor: ‘Come, let us return to the Lord; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him. Let us know, let us press on to know the Lord; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth.’ What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early. Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.”

Lector  The Word of the Lord.

People  Thanks be to God.

Psalm  50:7-15

Hear, O my people, and I will speak: “O Israel, I will bear witness against you; * for I am God, your God.

I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; * your offerings are always before me.

I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, * nor he-goats out of your pens;
For all the beasts of the forest are mine, *
   the herds in their thousands upon the hills.
I know every bird in the sky, *
   and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.
If I were hungry, I would not tell you, *
   for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.
Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, *
   or drink the blood of goats?
Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
   and make good your vows to the Most High.
Call upon me in the day of trouble; *
   I will deliver you, and you shall honor me.”

The Second Lesson  Romans 4:13-25

The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith.
If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.
Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become “the father of many nations,” according to what was said, “So numerous shall your descendants be.” He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith “was reckoned to him as righteousness.” Now the words, “it was reckoned to him,” were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.
Lector   The Word of the Lord.

People   Thanks be to God.

The Gospel   Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.” ... While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantaneously the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

- 79% of these families have children, 50% of them are working families.
- 19.6% of children in Texas live below the poverty line.

Prayer

Almighty and most merciful God, we remember before you all poor and neglected persons whom it would be easy for us to forget: the homeless and the destitute, the old and the sick, and all who have none to care for them. Help us to heal those who are broken in body or spirit, and to turn their sorrow into joy. Grant this, Father, for the love of your Son, who for our sake became poor, Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

SUNDAY FORMATION
Whisper: How to Hear the Voice of God

Now–July 30  |  10 a.m.  |  Saint Michael Chapel
Led by Dr. Tim Smith and Others

We are focusing on the ways God speaks in our lives and how we can tune in. If there was one thing that defined the Apostles and the first century church, it’s that everything they did was guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit. As we enter the season of Pentecost, we’re going to look at the ways the Holy Spirit speaks and how we can better hear the voice and wisdom of God for our lives and for our church.

SUNDAY FORMATION: CLASS FOR PARENTS
Grace: Chosen to a Guaranteed Place in the Family

Now–June 18  |  10 a.m.  |  Theater
Led by the Rev. Christian Basel

Max Lucado writes that “Grace is the voice that calls us to change and then gives us the power to pull it off.” This study about Grace will help us seek how we are shaped and strengthened by God’s grace in our personal lives and among our family members, children, and friends. Join us for this seven-week study as we talk about what grace means in our lives today.

MEN OF SAINT MICHAEL BOOK STUDY
B.L.E.S.S. Five Simple Ways to Love Your Neighbor and Change the World

Starting June 14, Wednesdays, 7–8 a.m.
Room 103

Jesus called us to be salt and light in the world, both of which impact wherever they are and whomever they touch. But how do we do that in our lives in a way that is organic and authentic? Authors Dave and Jon Ferguson share five simple, straightforward practices that will allow anyone to bless their friends, neighbors, and coworkers. And by consistently living them out, you can affect not just individual lives but your entire neighborhood and community. For more info, contact Eric Gilmour, eric.andrew.gilmour@gmail.com.
