CHURCH

WELCOME

We're glad you're here!

We'd love to get to know you and help you get to know us. Saint Michael is a vibrant group of people choosing to live life as a community: pursuing Jesus, caring for one another, and serving those in need.

While you're here with us today, we'd love for you to do two things:

1. Fill out a Welcome Card. They're in the pew back in front of you, or use the QR code to use the quick, mobile-friendly "Get in Touch" form.

2. Stop by a Welcome Hub in the church lobby. You'll see greeters wearing "Welcome" ribbons/ lanyards and they can answer questions about a worship service, formation class, or childcare.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

At Saint Michael we are all about connecting, serving, and growing. To learn more about us, find ways to get involved, or see a map of the campus, scan the QR code.

OUR FOCUS: Build Christian Disciples for a Transformed Community

Rob Springer leads our Welcome and Connection ministries at Saint Michael and he would love the opportunity to connect and answer any questions you may have. Feel free to contact him at (903) 405-7447 or rspringer@saintmichael.org.

The blue cover reflects the liturgical color used during the season of Advent; blue is associated with the Virgin Mary, and so brings to mind the Incarnation.

FROM THE RECTOR

Welcome! I'm very glad you've joined us for worship today. Please take a moment to fill out the welcome card, either physically or digitally, that can be found on the opposite page of in the pew back in front of you. Our Welcome Team members are in the hallways today to help you with anything you need.

Today we welcome our youngest members for the annual Nativity Pageant at 11 a.m. in the church as they tell the story of Jesus's birth. Looking ahead, I hope you'll join us for Christmas Lessons and Carols at 4 p.m. on December 18, and plan ahead for Christmas Eve and Day with the schedule of service in this bulletin.

As we prepare to worship together, I invite you to take a moment and center yourself on God's presence. Worshiping, learning, and giving together help us grow closer to who God created us to be, and you're part of that work. May God bless you today and every day, and I hope to see you again very soon!

January 22 — New Service!

EPIPHANY LESSONS & CAROLS

A special evening of music and lesson readings: the Contemporary and Traditional music departments will perform selections of Epiphany hymns and original arrangements to observe the Light of the World given to all.

Saintmichael.org/EpiphanyLC

Today's prelude variations are based on the Lutheran hymn "Comfort, Comfort Ye, O People," found on page 67 in the Hymnal. Böhm's variations offer a varied treatment of the chorale (hymn tune), while simultaneously demonstrating the organ's tonal colors.

The Third Sunday of Advent
Nativity Pageant with Holy Eucharist Rite II

The order of service can be found in the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP)
The service begins on page 355 of The Book of Common Prayer.

Prelude

Variations on Freu dich sehr, o meine Seele — Georg Böhm

Entering Procession (standing, sung by all)

"Prepare the way, O Zion" Bereden väg för Herran — Hymn 65

The Opening Acclamation & Collect for Purity — BCP 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Opening Prayer

Celebrant Holy God, you have spoken through your prophets and called us to make straight the way of the Lord: Visit us with your grace and cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations, as we pray:

People God has done great things for us, and we are glad indeed. Amen.

Announcements (please be seated)

The Birthday Blessing (Those with birthdays in December are invited to stand)

All Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem (sung by the Staff Singers)

Rejoice in the Lord alway — Henry Purcell

Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say rejoice.
Let your moderation be known unto all men.
The Lord is at hand.
Be careful for nothing;
but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.
And the peace of God,
which passeth all understanding,
shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ our Lord.
— Philippians 4:4-7

In this "verse anthem" setting, the vital text "Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say rejoice" is sung repeatedly by the full choir, in alternation with verses by soloists. This piece is often known as the "Bell Anthem", because of the descending bass line, reminiscent of a great peal of bells.

Presentation Hymn (standing, sung by all)

"O Thou who camest from above" Conditor alme siderum

All baptized persons of any age regardless of their denomination and tradition are welcome to share in the banquet of the Lord's Supper.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer A (standing)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is sung or said on all Sundays, and on other occasions as appointed.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus (standing, sung by all) Robert Powell Hymn S 129

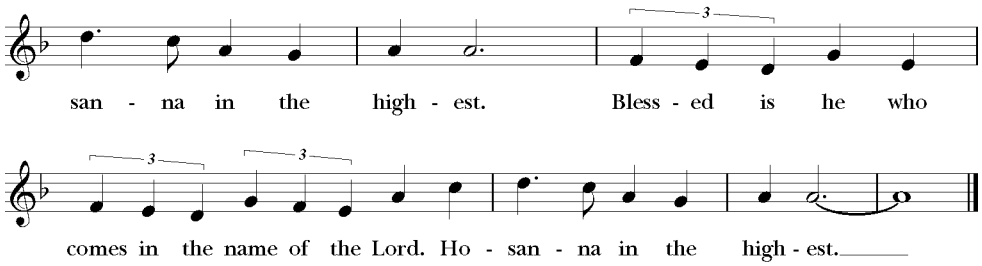
Hymn continues on the next page



Please kneel as you are able

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it;and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem (sung by all) Ambrosian Chant Hymn S 152

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please come forward to the Communion standing stations at the direction of our ushers. Receive the wafer in the palm of your outstretched hands. If you desire a gluten-free wafer, clasp your hands in front of you with your palms down. Receive the wine by drinking from the chalice as it is offered to you, or by retaining the wafer, to dip lightly into the chalice for yourself. If you are not receiving, you may cross your arms over your chest and receive a blessing. If you are unable to physically come to the rail, please indicate to an usher that you would like to receive Communion at your seat.

Communion Hymn

"Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming" Es ist ein Ros Hymn 81

The Post-Communion Prayer (kneeling, spoken by all)

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

People Thanks be to God.

Parents of children who participated in the Pageant can meet their children in the same room where they dropped them off earlier this morning.

Departing Procession

"Rejoice! Rejoice, believers" Llangloffan Hymn 68

Postlude

Hymn permission used by Rite Song, a one-time use reprint license for congregational use.

The foregoing text of the worship service contained in this order of worship is taken from the Book of Common Prayer 1979. The Book of Common Prayer alone is of authority in the worship of the Episcopal Church. This program is provided for convenience of use on this occasion.

This piece is the final of three settings for organ of the famous Lutheran hymn, "Nun komm' der Heiden Heiland" in Bach's collection of Leipzig chorales. The theme is heard in long notes in the pedal while the hands play fast-moving figuration outlining the notes of the chorale.

GOSPEL OF JOHN BIBLE STUDY

Taught by Dr. Tim Smith
Tuesdays, January 10–May 23
1 p.m. or 6 p.m. in Room 106

There is no Gospel like the Gospel of John! It claims to be an eyewitness account, shares stories of Jesus found nowhere else and offers a different chronology of Jesus' ministry This makes the reading and study of John's Gospel unique, powerful and life-giving! This will be an in-depth, verse by verse study utilizing the lenses of the first century historical, geographical, cultural, literary, social and religious context, opening an entirely new world of understanding scripture! To sign up, email Tim Smith, tsmith@saintmichael.org.

JOIN CHORISTERS!

The Saint Michael Choristers, welcome all young people from pre-K through high school, to join. Choristers receive a high level education from our renowned music staff, formation in faith, responsibility, mentorship, develop skills benefiting academics, and often make new friendships. Upcoming chorister trips include Boston and London! No musical background is necessary. For more info, contact Catherine Hinkley, chinkley@saintmichael.org or visit saintmichael.org/choristers.

St. Mary's Guild
